

Descriptive transcript for BankSA purchases Plan&Pay how to video.

Moderately upbeat music plays. A multicolored-blue-curved slide covers two-thirds of the screen, obscuring most of a birds-eye video of sushi platters. The video pans as the text 'Say hello to Plan and Pay' appears on the left side of the screen. White text reading 'Make big credit card buys' flashes up before being replaced by 'more bite-sized with Plan and Pay.' The video of sushi platters is replaced by a close-up video of a woman using chopsticks to dip sushi into soy sauce.

New text swoops on top of the blue slide, reading 'Convert any purchase over $200 from the last 30 days'. Three consecutive close-up videos of a large margherita pizzas sliced into multiple, smaller pieces replace the sushi. The text 'into a 3, 6, or 12-month instalment plan' appears on the screen.

A solid, deep blue background swipes across the screen. Large, white text exclaims 'With 0% interest!' followed by an asterisk. Below this sits the words 'T&Cs and fees apply' in small font. More large text replaces this, reading 'Sound like a plan?'

The blue background appears again. A smartphone appears on the right-hand side of the frame, filling up most of the height of the screen. The smartphone screen depicts the BankSA app.

Dynamically, the words '1. Go to your Account details page' flash up on the screen. A blue circular cursor appears, guiding you through the app.

First the cursor selects 'Amplify Visa' credit card, as the text reads '2. Look for the blue banners'. The cursor picks a purchase with a blue banner to pay off in instalments as the text reads '3. Select your chosen purchase'.

The Plan and Pay instalment plan page appears on screen, followed by the words '4. Pick a repayment schedule'.

The cursor scrolls through the monthly repayment options, confirms the 6-month plan and a confirmation screen appears. The text 'And that's it! You're done' flashes up.

The phone is replaced by a video of somebody making cookies. The words 'Have up to eight active Plan and Pay plans' appear.

Baked cookies are placed onto a tray as the text 'for both your balance and purchases' appears.

Everything is replaced by a large, deep blue background that reads 'Try Plan and Pay today'.

The moderately upbeat music ends.
